Introduction

Shaw Wood Academy recognises that upon the receipt of hospitality and gifts they must be subject to clear restrictions and that any that are accepted are appropriately declared and recorded. This policy takes into consideration the requirements under the UK Bribery Act 2010.

Purpose

The process set out in this policy is designed to safeguarding employees from any misunderstanding or criticism.

Scope

This policy applies to all Trust employees, permanent, temporary or on a casual basis, working for Shaw Wood Academy. It also includes all volunteers, including Trust Board Directors, Members when acting on behalf of the Academy.

Definition

By definition a gift is something that is given to an individual. Employees should be aware that all gifts and hospitality received (other than those of a minor nature) are not considered to be the property of the individual, but the property of the Academy, and should be recorded in accordance with this policy.

Donations to the Academy are a separate issue and are not covered by the scope of this policy.

Minor Nature

Gifts of minor nature are considered to be:

- Small gifts from those receiving a service from the Academy as a token of appreciation, for example from pupils to teachers.
- Gifts from suppliers up to a maximum value of £20.00
- Promotional items from suppliers that are widely given to all clients, for example calendars, pens, notepads, etc.

Personal gifts not included as those outlined, as 'minor nature' may not be solicited under any circumstances. To do so would be in contravention of the Bribery Act 2010.

Gifts of 'minor nature' need not be recorded or declared. All gifts of money and gifts over the value of £20 must be recorded in the academy's 'Gift and Hospitality Register'. These will not be kept by the individual and remain the property of the Academy

Hospitality

Lavish hospitality should not be accepted so that it cannot be interpreted as a way of exerting an improper influence over the way staff carry out their duties.

Hospitality in excess of a moderate working lunch should not be accepted without the approval of the Trust Board. All offers of hospitality, other than those of a minor nature, must be recorded in the Register of Gifts and Hospitality noting if the offer was accepted or declined.

Other hospitality may be accepted where:

- A member of staff is representing the Academy in the community
- The hospitality concerns attendance at a relevant conference of course, where the hospitality is corporate not personal

The timing of hospitality in relation to procurement or purchasing decisions that the Academy may be taking is especially sensitive. The Academy should never accept a gift or hospitality from any organisation where you can reasonably foresee that you will be involved in deciding whether or not to they should be awarded a contract or order.

External hospitality is generally not appropriate. Where the Academy pays for external hospitality, the CEO or Principal, who will review the request in line with the UK Bribery Act 2010, should approve this.
